

Submission Requirements

- Please be pertinent to the times, to the point, and pack a punch.
  - Please be unrelenting, un-politically-correct,
- Do not water down principles, but state them as radically as necessary.
  - Be logical, concise, succinct, yet convey your argument.
  - An ideal article is 500 words. (+/- 200 is acceptable)

Goals of the Paper

The aim of the paper is to inspire liberty in the people, and not necessarily for the paper to become a debate forum for intra-libertarian ideas, though this may ensue as well. Rather, we must show the people that what they already know to be true: that the initiation of violence (aggression) is immoral and thus criminal, and that this should apply to everyone.

As the State rests on public opinion, mass appeal must be made to turn the ideology in the people's minds toward one of liberty for all. Achieving liberty takes no more and no less than a change in public opinion regarding the exemption of the State for the natural theory of property everyone holds for individuals: that it's immoral to be an "appropriator" of property you have not voluntarily contracted.

I want to spark a liberty movement; not continue endless debating.

Please include: (all optional)

- How you would like your name/moniker displayed
  - Age, Location, etc.
  - A picture of yourself if you'd like
- A short bio of yourself (e.g. economist, writer, graduated at XU, musician, etc)
  - Any notes you may wish

